

American Law and Economics Review

Volume 10 Number 2 Fall 2008

Articles

Management Always Wins the Close Ones Yair Listokin	159
Defense Costs and Insurer Reserves in Medical Malpractice and Other Personal Injury Cases: Evidence from Texas, 1988–2004 Bernard Black, David A. Hyman, Charles Silver, and William M. Sage	185
Does Post-Accident Drug Testing Reduce Injuries? Evidence from a Large Retail Chain Alison D. Morantz and Alexandre Mas	246
Bankruptcy Law and Entrepreneurship John Armour and Douglas Cumming	303
Evidentiary Standards and Information Acquisition in Public Law Matthew C. Stephenson	351
The Optimal Penalty for Sexually Transmitting HIV Andrew M. Francis and Hugo M. Mialon	388
The Economics of US Civil War Conscription Timothy J. Perri	424
Global Market Surveillance Douglas Cumming and Sofia Johan	454

For more information about the American Law and Economics Association please visit us at www.amlecon.org